DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on 14 November 2005 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of application number 10/760254 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Silverbrook (US 20020154189 A1).

Silverbrook discloses:

With regards to claim 1, an inkjet printer cartridge (figs. 3 and 9) including:

a body (fig. 3, the cartridge has a body, 0025, 0051) including, a printing fluid storage (0055, fig. 9, the rectangular portions below the printheads represent the fluid storage), and a printhead including at least 20,000 printing fluid delivery nozzles in fluid communication with the printing fluid storage (printhead chips together make up a pagewidth printhead, which is mounted on the cartridge of fig. 3, 0044-0045, 0089, 0090);

wherein said cartridge is configured to be replaceably receivable in a complementary cradle so that when mated together, said cartridge and said cradle together form an inkjet printer (the cartridge is capable of being replaceably receivable in a complementary cradle so that when mated together, the cartridge and cradle together form an inkjet printer).

With regards to claim 2, a printer cartridge according to claim 1, wherein the printhead includes at least 30,000 printing fluid delivery nozzles in fluid communication with the printing fluid storage (0090).

With regards to claim 3, a printer cartridge according to claim 2, wherein the printhead comprises a pagewidth printhead (0090).

With regards to claim 4, a printer cartridge according to claim 3, wherein the printing fluid storage comprises a collapsible membrane, said membrane defining one or more storage reservoirs for separately storing one or more printing fluids for printing (the reference incorporates by reference several applications and patents, including application number 10/113053, U.S. Patent 6,362,868, which recites in claim 10, ink reservoirs with collapsible membranes).

With regards to claim 5, a printer cartridge according to claim 4, wherein the one or more printing fluids is a set of coloured inks sufficient for colour printing (0056, CMYK).

With regards to claim 6, a printer cartridge according to claim 5, wherein the one or more printing fluids includes an ink fixative for facilitating fixing of ink following delivery by said fluid delivery nozzles (0056).

With regards to claim 7, a printer cartridge according to claim 6, wherein the one or more printing fluids includes an infrared ink (0056).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 14 November 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's argument that Silverbrook does not disclose the limitation wherein the cartridge is configured to be replaceably receivable in a complementary cradle so that, when mated together, said cartridge and said cradle together form an inkjet printer is noted. However, the claims are directed towards an inkjet printer cartridge and the cartridge of Silverbrook is capable of being receivable in a complementary cradle.

Applicant's argument that Silverbrook does not disclose the ink storage comprising a collapsible membrane is noted, however, Silverbrook incorporates by reference a collapsible membrane as discussed above.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
